White Sox Win and Lose While Red Sox Slip Back

League Leaders Split Even in Double Header—Connie Mack's Men Win From Boston.

CLEVELAND, O., Aug. 15.—Cleveland and Chicago broke even Tuesday, Chicago taking the first game 3 to 2, while the Indians won the second 4 to 2. Faber was hit at opportune moments while Morton was a puzzle until the seventh. Speaker was hit in the head with a pitched ball and forced to retire. Cleveland out-batted Chicago 3 to 1 in the first game, making 12 hits, but could not make their hits count, having 11 men left on bases. On the other hand Chicago made all of its four hits count, an error by Clevelander being the deciding factor.

First game: Chicago .... 200 100 000—3 4 0 Cleveland .... 000 000 020—2 12 2 Williams and Schalk; Clevelander and O'Neill.

Second game: Chicago .... 000 000 101—2 8 1 Cleveland .... 200 010 014—4 10 0 Faber, Danforth and Schalk; Morton and O'Neill.

RUTH IS OUTPITCHED. PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 15.—A pitching duel between Bush and Ruth Tuesday was won by Philadelphia from Boston when the home team bunched hits with two bases on balls in the third inning, the score being 3 to 1. During the rally, Ruth tripled to centerfield, the drive being one of the longest in the history of Shibe park. Meyer had a finger hurt by a foul tip and was forced to leave the game.

Ruth and Thomas; Bush and Meyer, Schanz.

GOOD HEAVENS, HUGHES! DETROIT, Aug. 15.—St. Louis evened the series with Detroit by winning Tuesday's game 8 to 4, bunting hits in the fourth and fifth innings for all their runs. Pratt hit for three bases in the fifth inning with two men on. Boland retired at the end of the fourth inning after allowing three bases on balls and four hits.

St. Louis .... 000 220 000—8 4 0 Detroit .... 002 000 002—4 11 2 Davenport and Severide; Boland, Elmhake and Spencer.

WASHINGTON TAKES TWO. WASHINGTON, Aug. 15.—Washington made a clean sweep of the series with New York by taking both games of the double header here Tuesday, winning the first 1 to 0 and the second 10 to 1. The opening contest was a pitching duel between Shaw and Mordridge, errors by Baumann and Peckinpach and a double steal resulting in the only run. In the second game Cullip was hammered for 11 hits in five innings and was poorly supported. Walter Johnson, in good form, recorded his seventh straight victory.

First game: New York .... 000 000 000—0 6 2 Washington .... 000 000 011—1 4 1 Mordridge and Walters; Shaw and Henry.

Second game: New York .... 000 001 000—1 6 2 Washington .... 050 221 000—10 14 2 Cullip, and Nunamaker; Johnson and Almsmith.

ST. LOUIS CARDS GET LITTLE ROCK HURLERS. LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Aug. 15.—Pres't R. G. Allen of the Little Rock Southern association club has sold Pitchers Robinson, Thomas and Knight to the St. Louis National league club. Robinson formerly was with the Cards, and Tincup with the Phillies. Knight, who was playing his first year in professional baseball, quit Little Rock sometime ago, and now is pitching for a semi-professional team in Mississippi, but is said to be willing to join the St. Louis club.

NEW YORK, Aug. 15.—Johnny Kilbane has not retired. The great little featherweight has decided to look upon the Leonard catastrophe as one of the ups and downs of a real champion's career—and what is more he is going to box a real knockout terror 15 rounds to a decision for his crown. Kilbane has accepted a guarantee of $2,500 to fight K. O. Eggers a 15 rounder to a decision for the title at New Haven, Conn. Le Bang, who is to promote the bout, has not decided just what date he will name, but he thinks that it may be Labor day.

INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 15.—Early Dreams, 2:04 1-4, sensational stake trotter, was sold Tuesday at the North Randall track by W. Halsall of Greenfield, Ind., to J. Crouch and son of Lafayette, Ind., for $12,000, it became known here tonight. George Crouch watched the Greenfield gelding trot at the Kalamazoo and Columbus grand circuit meets and decided on the purchase after he had seen his performance when matched against "Bugs" Lassie. The bay gelding had been raced over Indiana half mile tracks for three of four years and is considered the big surprise trotter of the year, especially in view of the fact that after he had been placed in the stables of Pop Geers he did no better than 2:07 1-2 in 1915, and was considered fit only to return to the half mile course.

Columbus Captures Two Games From Leaders of League

COLUMBUS, O., Aug. 15.—Columbus won a double header set of games Tuesday from Indianapolis 4 to 0 and 4 to 2. Knetzer had the leaders' shut out in the second game until the ninth inning when he weakened enough to permit two runs to be scored. All the five Columbus hits off Cy Falkenberg were for extra bases. Brown pitched a strong game and never was in trouble while gaining his shutout. First Baseman Hasbrouk was recalled by the Chicago White Sox. Scores: (First game.) Indianapolis .... 000 000 000—0 5 1 Columbus .... 000 102 014—5 1 1 Dawson and Gossett; Brown and Blackburn.

(Second game.) Indianapolis .... 000 000 002—2 5 3 Columbus .... 000 102 014—5 1 1 Falkenberg and Gossett; Knetzer Coleman.

TAIL ENDERS WIN ONE. CLEVELAND, O., Aug. 15.—Toledo won the first game of the double header with Louisville 5 to 1. The second was called on account of darkness at the end of the sixth inning with no runs scored. Scores: (First game.) Louisville .... 000 000 001—1 5 0 Toledo .... 000 120 014—5 3 1 Main and Koehler; Ford and Sweeney.

Crouch and son of Lafayette, Ind., for $12,000, it became known here tonight. George Crouch watched the Greenfield gelding trot at the Kalamazoo and Columbus grand circuit meets and decided on the purchase after he had seen his performance when matched against "Bugs" Lassie. The bay gelding had been raced over Indiana half mile tracks for three of four years and is considered the big surprise trotter of the year, especially in view of the fact that after he had been placed in the stables of Pop Geers he did no better than 2:07 1-2 in 1915, and was considered fit only to return to the half mile course.

INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 15.—Early Dreams, 2:04 1-4, sensational stake trotter, was sold Tuesday at the North Randall track by W. Halsall of Greenfield, Ind., to J. Crouch and son of Lafayette, Ind., for $12,000, it became known here tonight. ## Giants and Robins Divide Double Bill, Fist Fight Feature

NEW YORK, Aug. 15.—New York and Brooklyn divided another double header Tuesday, the Giants winning the first game, 5 to 4, and Brooklyn taking the second, 2 to 1. The second game was marred by a fist fight between Stengel and Fletcher in the sixth inning in which other players joined. Both principals were ordered from the field by Umpire Harrison. A feature of the double header was six home runs, four of which came in the first game. Krueger hit a ball over the left field fence in the first game, the second time this has been done in the last seven years. Fletcher won the first game with a two-base hit in the eighth inning, driving in the tying and winning runs. In the second game Marquard pitched a grand game for Brooklyn's Daubert, who
